Correspondence Schoothst Online High School Diploma Programs

New York State Department of Education does not recognize a high school program of corresponder study to meet the requirements for a secondary education for New York Statemussidents. You apply under the provisions of Ability to Benefit and receive a passing score on the Computerized Placement Test (CPT) in English, reading, and mathematics administered by the College.

Students who complete a secondary education program of excerest pudy of a state other than New York, must show that the correspondence school is recognized and approved by the state educational entity where the correspondence school is lobrated udentitust have been a resident of that state in the time of study and completion of the (Problem ink)